As required by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) and Connecticut law, this practice may not use or disclose your individually identifiable health information without your authorization except as provided in our Notice of Privacy Practices. Connecticut General Statute allows up to 30 days to complete this record release.

1. I understand that I may revoke this authorization at any time by notifying this medical practice in writing. My revocation will not affect actions taken by this medical practice prior to its receipt.
2. I understand if I do not sign this form: a health plan may not enroll me or make me eligible for benefits; my physician will not perform the expert, employment, life insurance or other physical or medical evaluation which would otherwise be performed solely for the purpose of disclosure of a third party; my right to obtain present or future treatment for psychiatric disabilities will not be jeopardized, except where disclosure of the information is necessary for treatment.
3. I understand that this health information may include HIV related information and/or information relating to diagnosis or treatment of psychiatric disabilities and/or substance abuse and that by signing this form, I am authorizing such information to be disclosed.
4. I understand that, if the recipient of the information is not a health care provider or health plan covered by the federal Privacy Rule, the information used or disclosed as described above may be redisclosed by the recipient and no longer protected by the Privacy Rule. Other state or federal law may prohibit the recipient from disclosing specially protected information, such as substance abuse treatment information, HIV/AIDS-related information, and psychiatric/mental health information.
5. I understand that I have the right to receive a signed copy of this authorization.
6. This authorization must be filled out completely to be valid.
7. You may wish to ask the person or entity you want to receive your information to complete the sections detailing the information to be released and the purposes for the disclosure.

Your signature indicates your agreement with the above listed conditions.
